MANDATE:

Western Gold Theatre Society is a professional company of established senior theatre artists (age 55+) committed to producing plays of the highest quality and relevance to audiences of all ages. As part of this mandate Western Gold also mentors emerging younger professional artists as they 'share the boards' with us. We present both theatre classics and newly commissioned Canadian works that reflect and illuminate the rich experience of our senior community. The one thing all productions have in common and which guides our artistic choices is the all-important theme of how all of us embrace and/or confront our lives and the passage of time.

OBJECTIVES:

To create a range of opportunities for senior artists to continue their life-long work.

To mentor emerging artists in all aspects of the performing arts.

To engage audiences of all ages and backgrounds in theatrical performances by senior artists.

To encourage conversation amongst the Canadian public on the impact and joys of aging.
